

1960 – The 1960 Major Street & Highway Plan developed the idea and subsequent plan to have an east-west arterial class street constructed north of I-74, which followed the adopted street grid pattern, was established in Champaign and Urbana

1989 – Illinois Department of Transportation completed construction of the interchange at I-57 and Township Road 151 (later named Olympian Drive)

1994 – C-U in 2020, a Long Range Transportation and Mobility Plan for the Champaign-Urbana-Savoy-University of Illinois Area, prepared by CUUATS, proposed Olympian Drive from Prospect Avenue to High Cross Road as a new corridor

1999 – C-U in 2030, a Long Range Transportation and Mobility Plan for the Champaign-Urbana-Savoy-University of Illinois Area, prepared by CUUATS, includes Olympian Drive as one of the major investment projects

2005 – Olympian Drive is included in the Urbana Comprehensive Plan, adopted following a multi-year public engagement process

2009 – Olympian Drive construction completed between Legacy Avenue and 1500' East of Duncan Road

2009 – Olympian Drive is once again evaluated and reaffirmed in the CUUATS Long Range Transportation Plan 2035 : Choices

1999 – Champaign completed the westward extension of Olympian Drive Scoping Study from Mattis Avenue to US 150/Staley Road

1970 & 1986 – Olympian Drive was restated in the Comprehensive Transportation Study for the Champaign – Urbana Urban Area Transportation Study (CUUATS)

1991 – CUUATS staff undertook a Scoping Study for Township Road (TR) 151 (later named Olympian Drive)

1997 – Urbana and Champaign, along with Champaign County, completed the Olympian Drive Location Study and Design Report

2004 – Phase I Olympian Drive construction was completed between Prospect Avenue and Apollo Drive

2008 – Additional Olympian Drive construction completed between Mattis Avenue and Legacy Avenue

2010 – Illinois Commerce Commission (ICC) lists Olympian Drive in its Crossing Safety Improvement Program, FY 2011-2015 Plan

2004 – Olympian Drive is evaluated in the CUUATS 2025 Long Range Transportation Plan

2010 – Intergovernmental Agreement signed by the cities of Urbana and Champaign for design engineering of Olympian Drive between Apollo Drive, over the Canadian National railroad to US Route 45

OLYMPIAN DRIVE

---

EXTENSION